

HEAD TEACHER REQUIRED FOR INWOODS SMALL SCHOOL

at Brockwood Park School, Bramdean, Hampshire.

Required for September 2020 a qualified and experienced teacher to co-ordinate all the activities of this unique school.

At Inwoods there are between 30 to 40 children aged from 5 to 11 years old. The school operates with no sense of pressure, competition or comparison, and with an emphasis on good relationships: adults with children and the children with each other. As the intentions at Inwoods are informed by the teachings of J. Krishnamurti on education, a knowledge and appreciation of these teachings are essential for any applicant.

The Head Teacher will be required to:

- work closely with the other teachers in developing the curriculum
- co-ordinate and ensure the smooth running of all the activities of the school
- report directly to the Directors of the Krishnamurti Foundation Trust
- maintain and further develop links with Brockwood Park School

A high level of job satisfaction should be more important to the right person than a generous salary.

Please apply by enclosing a full CV and the names and addresses of two referees and send your application to recruitment@brockwood.org.uk or to:
