Privacy Notice for Parents of children at the school, or applying to join the school

Krishnamurti Foundation Trust Ltd is the legal entity responsible for Brockwood Park School and is the data controller for the personal information described in this notice. The Trust has arrangements in place to ensure that individuals can exercise their data protection rights. Personal information may be shared between departments of the Trust where necessary for shared support functions.

This privacy notice is reviewed regularly. We process personal information in accordance with applicable UK data protection law, including the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018, as amended.

The purpose of this Privacy Notice is to help you understand what personal information is, how and why we collect and process your personal information and our legal reason for doing so. It also explains your rights and the decision that you can make about your own information.

A member of the School Management Committee, Tom Power, is responsible for overseeing data protection matters at the School and is our Data Protection Officer. Questions about this privacy notice or the School's use of personal information should be directed to him at tom@brockwood.org.uk.

Like other organisations we need to keep your information safe, up to date, only use it for what we said we would, destroy it when we no longer need it and most importantly - treat the information we get fairly.

What is "personal information"?

Personal information is information that identifies you as an individual and relates to you. This includes your contact details, next of kin and financial information.

How and why does the school collect and use personal information?

We obtain information about you from admissions forms and from your child's previous school. We may also get information from professionals such as doctors and from local authorities.

Our legal grounds for using your information

This section contains information about the legal basis that we are relying on when handling your information.

As you will see, in some cases we rely on more than one of the basis for a particular use of your information. For example we will rely on contract, legitimate interests and public interest grounds when using your information to provide your child with an education. The ground that we will rely on for a particular purpose may vary depending on the circumstances. For example, if we decide to tell the local authority something about a parent for safeguarding reasons, sometimes this will be because we have a legal obligation to do so but on other occasions we may tell the local authority because we are worried about the child even if we don't have a legal obligation to report something (in which case we would be relying on legitimate interests and public interests).

Legitimate interests: This means that the School is using your information when this is necessary for the School's legitimate interests except when your interests and fundamental rights override our legitimate interests. The School is relying on legitimate interests for all the examples and purposes listed above. Specifically, the School has a legitimate interest in:

- providing educational services to your child and to other children;
- safeguarding and promoting the welfare of your child, other children, our employees and volunteers;
- promoting the objects and interests of the School. This includes fundraising and using photographs of you at our school events in promotional material. It also includes making sure that we are able to enforce our rights against you, for example, so that we can contact you if unpaid school fees are due; keeping the school buildings safe;
- using your information in connection with legal disputes. For example, if you or your child bring a claim against the School;
- protecting the School's reputation;
- facilitating the efficient operation of the School; and
- ensuring that all relevant legal obligations of the School are complied with (for example in relation to inspections).

In addition your personal information may be processed for the legitimate interests of others. For example another school will have a legitimate interest in knowing if you have not paid School fees that are due to us.

Necessary for contract: We will need to use your information in order to perform our obligations under our contract with you and for you to perform your obligations as well. For example, we need your name and contact details so that we can keep you updated on your child's progress and so that we can contact you if there is a concern.

Legal obligation: Where the School needs to use your information in order to comply with a legal obligation, for example to report a concern to Children's Services. We may also have to disclose your information to third parties such as the courts, the local authority or the police where legally obliged to do so.

Vital interests: In limited circumstances we may use your information to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of someone else (e.g. if you or they are seriously hurt).

Performance of a task carried out in the public interest (or carrying out public tasks): The following are examples of when we use your information to perform tasks in the public interest: providing your child with an education

- safeguarding and promoting your welfare, your child's welfare and the welfare of other children;
- facilitating the efficient operation of the School;
- ensuring that we comply with all of our legal obligations

The European Commission has produced a list of countries which have adequate data protection rules. The list can be found here: http://ec.europa.eu/justice/data-protection/internationaltransfers/adequacy/index_en.htm

If the country that we are sending your information to is not on the list, or is not a country within the EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland), then it might not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK.

We keep your information for as long as we need to in order to educate and look after your child. We will keep some information after your child has left the School, for example, so that we can find out what happened if you make a complaint.

In exceptional circumstances we may keep your information for a longer time than usual but we would only do so if we had a good reason and only if we are allowed to do so under data protection law. We can keep information about you for a very long time or even indefinitely if we need this for historical, research or statistical purposes.

Please see our Information and Records Retention Policy for more detailed information. This can be found on our website in the policies section for each school.
